Hazrat Khalifatul Masih-V (May Allah be his helper) said:

*"The Ansar should be worried about the Hereafter and so 100% of them should be doing their five daily prayers...Their age is increasing and so they should be concerned even more than others. A poet once said, 'As the bird of time flies higher, the shadow of one's age fades along.' So, if you think about this, it should create a sense of deep anxiety and anguish. “The office-bearers who the people look forward to and have picked them for being the best among them should be an example for them. It is not only during the Ramadan that they need to pray according to Allah’s ways and keep counting the days as they pass and say that now only about 12 days are left and then we will return to the routine or to their old ways. They should try to permanently incorporate the training of the Ramadan, their struggle and their attention toward the prayers in their lives”. (Friday Sermon June 24, 2016).
